AS WE GATHER Who am I? Who are you? Who is God? These are questions surrounding identity—questions we and others wrestle with on and off throughout our lives as we live through life’s chapters that may include being a child, sibling, spouse, parent, employee, employer, hobbyist, or retiree, with the spiritual journey that accompanies them. These identity questions also have added meaning today as the society we live in especially wrestles with one’s identity. When God baptizes us into the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, we receive our most important identity as a baptized child of God.

Psalm 119:89–93; antiphon: v. 105

Your word is a lamp | to my feet*

and a light | to my path.

Forever, O | LORD, your word*

is firmly fixed | in the heavens.

Your faithfulness endures to all gener- | ations;*

you have established the earth, and it | stands fast.

By your appointment they | stand this day,*

for all things are your | servants.

If your law had not been | my delight,*

I would have perished in my af- | fliction.

I will never forget your | precepts,*

for by them you have giv- | en me life.

Glory be to the Father and | to the Son*

and to the Holy | Spirit;

as it was in the be- | ginning,*

is now, and will be forever. | Amen.

Your word is a lamp | to my feet*

and a light | to my path.
