About our Communion Practice

To our visitors and guests: In accordance with the apostolic command and in unity with the unbroken practice of the Church, St. Paul Lutheran practices Closed Communion. If you are not a member of a congregation in fellowship with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod we kindly ask you to refrain from communing. We do so not to offend you, but because the Scriptures clearly teach that those communing together be unified in their confession of the Faith. In this Sacrament we are not only joined to Christ our Head who is present in His body and blood but are also knit together with one another as His Body, in which there should be no division of belief. Should you have questions or concerns about this Biblical and historic doctrine, please speak with our pastor. If this is your first time communing at St. Paul Lutheran Church, please speak with our pastor before the service. If certain factors prohibit you from partaking in regular wine, a non-alcoholic option is available in the center circle of each tray. If not communing but desiring to receive a blessing, please cross your arms over your chest when Pastor approaches.

Worthy. Ashamed. Nostalgic. Lonely. Secure. This is just a handful of emotions we observe in the Psalms—and in our day-to-day lives, too. In this women’s Bible study from beloved author Christina Hergenrader, you’ll be guided through 25 psalms, digging into their genres, perplex emotions, glimpses of Jesus, and more. Gather your friends and together you can read, feel, discuss, pray, and grow closer to the Lord

TRUSTEES: The Trustees have discovered we have water damage to a wall in the basement, the wall is a front wall by glass windows on the east side of the narthex . With the need to repair the wall, we will need to removed the tree out front and we are checking to see if anyone has knowledge of the tree being donated as a memorial tree, with that being said unfortunately we have to remove the tree, but the Trustees out of respect of it potentially being donated, would like information before proceeding.

Stewardship Sentence:

The Stewardship sentences are shared in helping to reinforce faithful, discipleship-centered stewardship is deeply encouraging. With the hope that they would serve as a simple tool to connect God’s Word to the daily lives of His people—shaping hearts, strengthening faith, and guiding Christians in their walk as disciples of Christ, and also serves as a reminder of the shared mission we have in nurturing faithful stewards of God’s gifts. Scripture: “The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.” — Psalm 23:1

Because the Lord provides all we need, we joyfully return a portion of His gifts in gratitude and trust.
